Director's Notes

Sept. was a great time to ride with the weather cooling off we had a good crowd at the monthly Gathering with 30 attending.

Our dinner ride to the Smoke'in Pig was one of our largest lunch rides.

We had 26 to go and all had a great time with the fellowship and a great lunch of Barbeque. We had several groups to go in different directions for a great afternoon of riding.

Thanks for all that participate in the chapter events.

Our First Aid CPR class October 6th was a great success. We now have 21 trained in First Aid and CPR, 2 Paramedics and 1 rescue specialist. We should have at least one on every ride. This is a great accomplishment.

October is our last regular gathering for the year, but it is not our last activity for the year. We have a lot planned through November.

Nov. 3rd we have classes starting at 9:30 am Co-Rider, Co-Rider 2. I would like for the rider and the co-rider to attend the classes.

We will have a great time after the class. We will choose a place to go for lunch.

Nov. 9-10 we have 12 going to "District Wind Down" in Dublin Ga. We will be leaving Lavonia on the 9th returning late on the 10th.

Nov 17th will be our End of Year Party at New Franklin Christian Church starting at 6 p.m. (Please wear your chapter shirts, pictures will be taken.)

We have a great time planned so mark your calendar. This will be our last gathering for 2012.

January 5th 2013 we would like to tentatively schedule a Class or Seminar to be decided on. See under Events on page 7 for list of available Classes and Seminars.

January 19th we will be back at Shoney's for our regular gathering.

Melinda & I would like to thank all of you for a great year and wish you a "Merry Christmas" and a "Happy New Year".

Please ride safe!!!

Deer, Oh Dear!

There are a lot of “booby traps” that the unwary motorcyclist can ride into, including innocuous-looking alleyways, raised pavement edges, railroad tracks, loose sand, sunken manhole covers, tar snakes, and white plastic arrows glued to the pavement. Most of those hazards occur in the city. Out in the country on those twisty back roads we love to ride, we can expect some different types of booby traps.

One major trap that can spring on us is a wild animal, especially wild deer. Deer are so delicate and demure that it’s hard to think of them as a hazard. But when we come upon the sickening sight of a dead deer along the highway, we are again reminded of the danger, both to the animal, and to ourselves.

Animal strikes are a significant hazard for those of us who enjoy long-distance travel. Statistically speaking, vehicle collisions are the major motorcycling hazard, but as motorcycling experience builds and we get a little smarter, our risks of a car/bike collision should decrease. But the risk of animal strikes remains high because animals are so difficult to predict. Wild deer are found all over North America, in large numbers, their population is increasing, and they have habits and instincts that put them on collision courses with motor vehicles.

The typical deer strike occurs with the animal suddenly leaping in front of the vehicle, often at night. The vehicle slams into the deer, with sickening consequences. What’s startling is the amount of damage even a small deer can do to a speeding vehicle. If the motorist happens to be a motorcyclist, the odds are high that both deer and biker will be seriously injured. What’s so insidious about motorcycle/deer collisions is the unpredictability.

You may have ridden for hundreds of thousands of miles, proficiently avoiding thousands of left-turners, alley jumpers, edge traps, graveled corners, and decreasing-radius turns. Then, on some easy country ride, a deer suddenly leaps out of the woods into your path, and Thud! We don’t have reliable statistics on motorcycle/animal collisions, because many accidents don’t get reported. The famous “Hurt Report” gathered statistics from only motorcycle accidents in the Los Angeles area, where there are few wild deer. But animal strikes are a frequent enough problem elsewhere, that we should practice appropriate countermeasures on those rides that take us into deer country.

Deer Instincts

To understand what to look for and what to do about deer, let’s consider their instincts and habits. Deer are cautious, and prefer to hide in the trees. They like munching on tender foliage. So, in the summer, expect wild deer in forested areas or riverbeds where the trees and underbrush provide lots of cover and fresh salad. That lush roadside grass the highway department keeps mowed is a dinnertime favorite.

That means you should expect deer feeding along the shoulder of the road in shady areas. In the daytime, a deer feeding on the road shoulder will have it’s head down, so it may look like a log in the ditch, or a mossy boulder, or a crumpled cardboard box. When the head comes up, you’ll immediately see those large ears, and perhaps a rack of antlers.

Motorist Awareness Coordinator

Dress Loud & Ride Proud

Motorcycle Awareness

Over two-thirds of car-motorcycle crashes are caused by drivers, not by motorcyclists. The driver either does not see the oncoming motorcyclist at all or does not see the motorcyclist in time to avoid a crash.

Tips for Drivers:

Why Didn't I See That Motorcycle?

Drivers tend to look for other cars, not motorcycles.

Because of its smaller profile, a motorcycle is harder to see and you may find it more difficult to estimate the motorcycle's speed.

The motorcyclist's riding pattern is different from your driving pattern. Different actions may be needed for the same driving or highway situation. For example, you may ignore a piece of road debris as a driver; however, that same piece of road debris may be deadly for a motorcyclist.

Traffic, weather, and road conditions require a motorcyclist to react differently than a driver, thus it is more difficult for you to judge and to predict cues that may require the motorcyclist to take an evasive action.

What Are Some Situations When Crashes Are Most Likely to Occur?

Riding in your blind spot: A motorcyclist is riding in your blind spot and you may not see the motorcycle. Additionally, you may fail to adequately check blind spots before changing lanes or making turn.

Hazardous road conditions: Potholes, wet leaves, railroad tracks and other road obstructions may dictate that a motorcyclist take an action that you may or may not.

Obstructed line of sight: Large vehicles, such as sport utility vehicles, delivery vans, and large trucks may block a motorcycle from your view and the motorcyclist may seem to suddenly appear.

How Can I Become More Aware of Motorcyclists?

Respect the motorcyclist: Remember the motorcycle is a vehicle with all of the privileges of any vehicle on the roadway. Give the motorcyclist a full lane of travel.

Look out: Look for the motorcyclist at intersections, when a motorcyclist may be making a left turn, and on the highway, when a motorcyclist may be changing lanes. Clearly signal your intentions.

Anticipate a motorcyclist's maneuver: Obstructions that you do not notice may be deadly for a motorcyclist. Predict evasive actions.

Allow plenty of space: Don't follow a motorcycle too closely. Allow enough room for the motorcyclist to take evasive actions.

Region A Directors

September began with a nice ride to Warner Robins for the Chapter Q Burger Burn and Dessert Auction. There we enjoyed good fellowship and good food with our GWRRR Friends. Chapter GA-S gave away the Georgia District Plaque and Chapter GA-A was the capturing Chapter.

We also attended the Region A Rally and as Jim Jackson would say “we had a bodacious time!” There were just short of 600 delegates in attendance at the Region A Rally and Georgia was well represented by Members from Chapters all across the District. Vicky and I want to say a special “Thank You” to all the wonderful volunteers that helped out in the Hospitality Room and with the Contest Judging that was assigned to Georgia. We could not have covered these tasks without your help.

Your Georgia District Couple of the Year Dick and Peg Hopkins have done an outstanding job in representing the Georgia District throughout the year, and it was no different at the Region A Couple of the Year Selection. Even though they were not selected as the Region A Couple, they did an excellent job. In passing, please let them know that you appreciate their efforts. All five District couples represented their Districts well, unfortunately only one couple can be selected as the Region A Couple. Congratulations to Dana & Jo Voight of Florida for being selected as the 2012-2013 Region A Couple of the Year.

At the closing ceremonies we experienced what you might call, the unexpected. Our NEW GWRRR Director Jere and Linda Goodman were present and we were pleasantly surprised when Linda introduced us all to Rapper J. That's right “Rapper J”! Jere Goodman your New GWRRR Director dressed in his rapper attire performed during closing ceremonies. While FUN and ENTERTAINING for the audience, his message was clear. He has heard the message from the membership, which is to minimize the structure and focus on having more fun. He also said, “As Director of GWRRR the only thing required to be mandatory is to have fun.” For more information you need to read Jere Goodman article on page 9 in the October issue of Wing World.

As time goes by changes must take place. Alan and Denise Head have decided to retire from the Georgia District Team as District Leadership Trainers. They are not leaving GWRRR, they plan on continuing to participate and remain as Instructors. We want to thank Alan and Denise for their dedication and commitment to GWRRR, the Georgia District Team and the Georgia Members. They will be missed and we wish them the best.

We would like for you to join us in welcoming Jim and Kay Elrod of Jasper, GA to the Georgia District Team as Assistant District Directors. They will be visiting the Chapters in the northwest area of the district in the coming months, so please make them feel welcome.

Tommy & Vicky

Transitions...

We all know that change is inevitable and it appears that the heat of summer is finally giving way to fall. At this time of year everything seems to be in transition—the temperatures are dropping, the amount of daylight is decreasing, animals are changing their patterns (two legged as well as four) which is all pretty normal.

With that said it does mean that we will need to increase our diligence when we go about our daily routines. Here are just a few ideas to keep in mind when you next swing a leg over your trusty steed's seat!

In the morning it may be chilly. You will want to wear an extra layer of clothing that you can remove as the day heats up. You might want to carry two jackets. A mesh for the afternoon warmth and a full jacket for the morning chill. Better yet, get a jacket with a removable liner that you can zip in or out as needed. The summer mesh gloves may be fine in the afternoon, but you might want some full leather gloves to start the day.

As the amount of daylight decreases we may now be traveling in some times of increased animal activity, especially deer, who while always a threat, seem to be more out and about during dusk or dawn.

Even though you travel the same route every day you may now be riding with direct sun in your face. Sun glare is a major issue, it can absolutely blind you.

What about our two legged animals? Well, they do not like to use their headlights. You will find them driving before the sun is officially up without any headlights being on. This makes them extremely difficult to pick out of the background especially on tree covered roads.

Check those tire pressures! As the ambient temperature drops your tire pressures will also drop.

These are but a few of the items to consider before you start out on your daily journeys or special fall get-a-ways. Remember to inspect your machine before you ride making sure that all of your lights are properly working so that you may be seen and that the battery, fluids, controls and tires are prepared for the ride.

Fall is some of the best riding of the year! Make sure you get out there and enjoy it because before too long we will be complaining about the cold...but that is a whole different story and not one we want to consider right now!

Until next time, Be Safe – We'll See You On The Road!

Corner of Hollywood and Kudzu Vine

Georgia's got talent and we need for you to show it off! As a part of the upcoming Hollywood themed Georgia Rally, aka Wing Fling, you will be entertained with the often imitated but never duplicated Talent Show.

Don't wait to the last minute and throw something together—your Chapter is better than that! Gather up that Chapter pride and strut your stuff on stage for the world to see. There will be room for young and old; groups and individuals; the serious, the funny and even the down right uproarious. Sing a song, do an interpretative dance, put on a skit where your whole Chapter can participate. Think of the fun as you win your very own Oscar—or at least come away with a Razzie. (Remember the jokes from last year's MC?) Whatever, just join in and have FUN!

“One of their goals is to keep the fun in GWRRA. We all agree, so he needs to concentrate on the other Regions. We have fun in Region A” Couple of the Year Selections are at hand.

Well the Region A rally is behind us. For those who were able to attend, I'm sure you had a great time—we certainly did! Donna and I have already registered for next year. The rally is staying in Eufaula, Alabama.

We would like to congratulate Dick and Peg Hopkins our District Couple of the Year. They did a great job representing Georgia. We also want to applaud Dana and Jo Voight from Florida—they were selected as the new Region “A” couple of the year for 2012/2013. I know they will certainly enjoy their year. I know it seems early, but we need to make plans to attend Wing Ding 35 in Greenville, South Carolina and cheer them on as they compete for the International Couple of the Year.

Also we would like to congratulate Chapter Georgia D. Their color newsletter came in first place and is now in route to national for the best in GWRRA.

“REGION A ROCKS”
Jere and Linda Goodman, the new director of GWRRA were in Eufaula. We all enjoyed meeting them. One of their goals is to keep the fun in GWRRA. We all agree, so he needs to concentrate on the other Regions. We have fun in Region A.

Is your GWRRA Number 061961? Call me before

October 10th and see what you have won.

Just a reminder that November 10th is Wind Down in Dublin at the Civitan center. The price is perfect, nothing. We do this for you the member. Come cheer your favorite couple as they honor their chapter by competing in the selection for our next District Couple of the Year. Also as the year draws to an end I hope everyone is looking to see who deserves to be honored as their next chapter Couple of the Year.

Ride safe and often,

Sid & Donna
